Church Camp Rules Revised and adopted: February 21, 2005 Executive Board Meeting

IMPORTANT: Sponsors please discuss these rules with everyone in your group BEFORE coming to camp. We want to be spiritual, restful, and fun. We do not want to spend a great deal of camp time reminding everyone about the rules. Also note the following from the BMA Camp Board:

1. The dress code is explained in the following pages as to what is allowed. Please understand that you are responsible for making sure that you follow the dress code. Our standards are not extreme, but they are Christian.
2. Camp is not a place to come and find a date. There is nothing wrong with having fun at camp, but please let your campers know that NO public display of affection is to happen at camp. We want our kids to be focused on what God has to say to them during the week and not on how many boyfriends/girlfriends they can have during the week.

Oak Park's Dress Code for all Youth & Children Trips/Events/Activities.

1. All shorts and/or skirts must be no shorter than 4-6 inches above the knee.
2. All shirts must be long enough so that when you raise your arms above your head your stomach does not show.
3. All swimsuits must be modest and one-piece.
4. No tank-tops/muscle shirts are permitted. Must have at least a 2-in wide strap to be considered a “sleeveless” shirt. The shirt must cover so that you do not see armpits if you lift your arms.
5. All clothing must be worn as it is made to be worn. (i.e. no rolling down shorts to make them shorter.)
6. Hats are not to be worn to indoor services and/or worship services.
7. All pants must fit around the waist. No sagging pants will be permitted. Modesty is what we want because on every trip you are not only representing our church, but you should also be sharing your Christian witness with everyone you see.

NOTE: If there are any questions about these rules for the dress code, they should be addressed before you come on the trip.
